ARE TO DISPLAY HIGH SCHOOL'S EXHIBITS AND CLASS ROOMS

Blossoms For Flower Show
Must Be Entered By 5 p. m.
Thursday, May 31

Throughout the Santa Ana High School preparation is going on for annual visitors' day, which will be held Friday, June 1, from 1 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m.

The flower show is to be one feature. All Santa Ana is invited to bring choice flowers to the High School building for entry. The entries should be at room 258 by 5 p. m., Thursday.

The Home Economics Department announces its open house for visitors' day, offering an opportunity for all to get acquainted with the faculty, the courses and the students and their daily work, in this department.

The Girls' League will have a representative to explain the details of their splendid organization. They have many valuable plans to be worked out in the near future. Among them are the Employment Bureau and Student Service Department, the Scholarship Society and Endowment Fund.

Plan New Courses

Several new courses will be offered in this department next year. These will be planned to suit the convenience of women and girls not in the high school at present. They will be held one or two days per week and will be open to all. Such subjects will be treated as, Dietetics, First Aid, Red Cross Work, Household Management, Cookery, Sewing, etc. One may register with Miss Whited after May 30. A class of at least twenty will have to be secured before the close of school in order to insure having it for next year. Misses Henry, Weld and Whited will have charge of these courses and will be glad to explain more in detail the content of the courses at any time. The Red Cross Society will have a representative to answer any questions that may be asked.

Miss Birdena Henry and a class of high school girls will give a demonstration of First Aid work and the sewing girls are making models of hospital garments and will explain how to make them. The sewing department is open on Saturdays for mothers to sew on those much needed army supplies.

Evening Program

Friday evening, the music department will be represented by the Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs, a male quartet and several soloists.

The Girls' Glee Club, assisted by Dorothy Mead and Elizabeth Parslow, will entertain from 7 until 8. The High School Male Quartet and the Boys' Glee Club, with Charlton Waters, Cassius Paul, Milton Foster, Edward Burns as soloists, will give a program from 8 until 9.

English as She is Taught

Although the English department cannot compete, in an appeal to the eye, with the Art department, or with the Domestic Science or the Manual Training departments, yet some interesting work is being done every day within the walls of her various class rooms. Her latch-strings are out daily to all visitors who care to inspect the work of training the high school boys and girls of Santa Ana to shoot their young ideas straight at the mark; but those interested in knowing why students do, or do not, hit the bull's eye, in speech or in writing, are invited to visit any of the following classes, Friday afternoon, June 1, at the times and places indicated below:

1:00 to 2:05—Orange Expression class, room 8, Commercial building; Commercial English class, room 209, Commercial building; Literature 3, 4, 6, rooms 20, 227, 220, Administration building; Argumentation class, room 221, Administration building.

2:10 to 3:15—Composition class, 2, room 20, Administration building; Grammar, 2, room 221, Administration building; Literature class, 4, room 227, Administration building; "Hospital" class, room 25, Administration building; Composition class, 6, room 209, Commercial building.

The Star Spangled Banner As the Author Wrote It

*O say can you see through the dawn's early light, what so proudly we hail at the twilight's last gleaming, whose broad stripes of bright red through the faltering flights over the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets red glare, the bomb bursting in air, gave proof through the night that our flags were still there,
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
Over the land of the free or the home of the brave?*

*On the shore dimly seen through the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dead silence reposed,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?*

*Now it catches the glories of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflects now shines in the stream,
Tis the star-spangled banner—O long way it waves
Over the land of the free or the home of the brave!*

*And where is that band who so valiantly serve,
That the honor of war, & the battle's confusion
A home & a Country should leave us no more?
Their blood has washed out their foul footstool's pollution
As refuse could save the barking & bane
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave,
And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave
Over the land of the free or the home of the brave?*

*O thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
Between their loved home & the war's desolation,
But with a dying a peace may the less in reward find
Praise the hoover that hath made a hero of a nation,
When conquer we must over our foes it is just,
And they be our motto—"In God we trust,"
O'er the star-spangled banner in triumph & safety wave
Over the land of the free or the home of the brave.*

Francis Scott Key, lawyer and poet, wrote "The Star Spangled Banner" on the back of an envelope during and after Fort McHenry's successful defense of Baltimore from the British fleet in September, 1814. Above is a facsimile of the original manuscript.

sweeping over our country, executives are looking everywhere for 'waste,' but we challenge close inspection for 'waste' in the Commercial Department of our high school," says an announcement.

"There is no wasted energy here. While the brain is being trained to think, the feet and fingers of our students are busy filling the demands that the various other departments of the school may require, and thus much expense is saved and energy utilized for our institutions. Here we are training the future leaders of the business world by applying common sense to the various things that must be done in a successful school.

"In your school visitation do not fail to take a peek into the empty waste-basket of the S. A. H. S., that is, the Commercial Department."

DUMMIES TARGETS OF PRESIDIO BAYONETS

SAN FRANCISCO. May 29.—Bayonet drill, in which student officers at the Presidio training camp will charge "dummies" and receive instructions in "fine points" of that particular form of warfare now so popular in Europe, has been added to the curriculum of the training camp. Bayonet drill is given a half hour aday on this week's program.

Orders issued by the camp authorities allow the men Memorial Day as a holiday, but, to make up for it, provide for a two hours practice march Friday.

ERCTION OF MISSION CHAPEL AT BALBOA IS BEGUN, LOT DONATED

BALBOA, May 29.—Through the generosity of Mrs. May Coon, who felt interested in having a religious work at Balboa, work was begun on the erection of a chapel there Monday, under the auspices of the Bible Institute of Los Angeles. Mrs. Coon deeded the lot to the institute, and the old building which stood on the rear is being moved to the rear to be put in repair for the home of the pastor. It will be a union interdenominational work, in which many persons at Balboa are taking an interest. The chapel will seat about 200 and will be dedicated the latter part of June.

WALTER REEVES CABLES HE IS SAFE ASHORE

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Reeves were delighted this morning to receive a cablegram from their son, Walter Reeves, saying that he arrived safely in London yesterday, May 28.

The young man left New York on May 19 with the base hospital corps unit No. 21 from St. Louis.

B. LEONARD, CHAMP,
PLANS TO ENLIST

BY H. C. HAMILTON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, May 29.—Benny Leonard, as lightweight champion, will defend his title sometime after "Uncle Sam has finished licking Germany."

This is the program he laid down today after he had sent Freddie Welsh reeling into fistful oblivion last night. He will meet Joe Welch in Philadelphia Monday night, but plans to enlist in the army today and enter active service next week.

Leonard's ascension to the throne held so long by Welsh came after a carefully planned and carefully fought battle. Eager though he was to send over the blow that would end the dancing master type of champion, he went through the eight rounds and a half of fighting cool and calm, placing his blows where they would do the most damage, and only waiting for the inevitable time the turtle shell of the Britisher would drop enough for the service next week.

Praise for Leonard, however, must be only slightly stronger than for Welsh. The old man of the ring, undoubtedly realizing the end was in sight, did everything he knew to prevent the finish of his career as leader of the lightweight division.

There was no denying, however, the cool, calm youth who stabbed and crossed, always holding his right hand in readiness.

The ninth round had been furiously fast, when Leonard started the whirlwind that brought the old champion down. Crossing for the head, Welsh started into a clinch. Using his right hand almost for the first time in the bout, Leonard crept behind the champion's guard. Welsh ducked, but he was too late. The smashing power of the mauling fist caught him on the temple. Welsh's knees sagged, a sorry smile struggled over his features and he tried vainly to stagger into a clinch. Leonard slipped away and his left crushed square onto Welsh's chin. Weaving faintly and trying to hold up, Welsh sagged until his knees touched the floor. Referee McFarland started to count and Welsh arose. Again he went down, one hand clinging to the ropes, in Leonard's corner. He arose, both hands on the ropes, his head unprotected. A dozen times the flailing fists of the eager challenger crashed into Welsh's chin. Gamely, the Britisher stood it. McFarland looked ap-

FORMER RESIDENT OF SANTA ANA IS KILLED IN CRASH

Mrs. E. E. Carter, Formerly Miss Pearl Sherwood, Dies In Auto Accident

WASHINGTON, May 29.—A regiment of American foresters will accompany the first contingent of United States engineers to France, it was announced today at the Department of Agriculture. This unit is to be composed of practical woodmen, loggers, portable sawmill operators and others experienced in lumbering operations. It will work under the supervision of technical experts in co-operation with French foresters furnishing timber for bridges, railroads and trench construction without permanently damaging the forests from which it is cut. The foresters will be assembled at six central points.

Those left to mourn her untimely death, are her husband and baby, her parents, one brother, and other relatives in the East, and many friends in Santa Ana, who will remember her as Miss Pearl Sherwood.

QUEEN BRUTAL CHARGE
WASHINGTON, May 29.—It is charged that Queen Sofia of Greece, head of the Red Cross activities in Greece, is violating the rules and traditions of the organization, she being reported to have refused Red Cross aid to the Greek revolutionists or their sympathizers, even when lying wounded.

WAR HITS ORIENT TOURIST TRADE

TOKIO, May 15 (by mail)—The Orient's tourist business, which promised to smash all records this year, has been practically ruined by America's belligerent attitude and the submarine scare on the Pacific. Never in history had indications pointed to such a bumper crop of American spenders as this spring.

The rikisha boys and curio men had girded their loins and extended their palms. All was ready for the American tourist's spring drive on the Far East. And then President Wilson called the Kaiser's hand and America doffed her coat and stepped into the big world scrap.

The big Toyo Kisen Kaisha liner Tenyo Maru, due at Yokohama April 30, carried less than 100 passengers from San Francisco. She has accommodations for 250 and practically every cabin had been sold. And then came war and the submarine rumors.

It's a sad day here for the hotel keeper, and the steamship agent, and the Chinese tailor and the rikisha boy and all the rest—but especially it is sad for the smiling, bowing, industrious subject of the Mikado who will show you everything from an ancient print to a cloisonne vase—and make you buy it.

RUB YOUR EYES

and get a clear vision of the possibilities of Fruit and Nut growing without irrigation in the Temecula-Paso Robles district—a swell place for a home-money making opportunity undreamed of a few years back, a combination of desirable conditions possessed by no other locality in the state, these are reasons why so many men from Orange county and other Southern California points are investing there.

10 acre lots, best orchard zone, near town, fine soil for almonds, walnuts, pears or prunes—all money makers—$90.00 to $175.00 per acre.

10 acre lots, young orchards just coming into bearing, $300.00 to $400.00 per acre.

Here are two good ones, combinations suitable for dairying, hog raising and fruit growing, 1/4 mile from high school.

30 acres, 1/2 in alfalfa, 1/2 in fine pear, prune or walnut land, $200.00 per acre.

43 acres adjoining and in the same combination and price, the alfalfa land owns electric pumping plant and modern cement pipe line system.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Berries were very cheap yesterday, ruling quotations for all varieties considerably lower than last week. Raspberries were offered at 5 to 6 cents a basket, blackberries at 7 to 8 cents, and loganberries at 6 to 7 cents a basket. Strawberries were firm, but the quality offered for the same old berries was much superior to previous grades. Apricots have also improved greatly in quality of late, and dealers are asking $1.70 to $1.75 a crate.

Easier prices continue to be the outstanding feature in the green vegetable market. Yesterday all classes of green beans were reduced, wax and at beans going to 5 and 5½ cents a pound, and Kentucky Wonders to 5½ and 6 cents a pound. Due to heavier receipts of summer squash, prices for same dropped to 85 cents a crate. Tomatoes gave indications of going over, and root vegetables are also due for a decline within the next day or two. Telephone peas are temporarily higher at 6 to 6½ cents a pound, but this level of values is not expected last throughout the week.

In the poultry market soaring prices are the order of the day. Old cocks are advanced to 10 cents a pound, and large broilers have jumped to 25 cents. Advances of 1 cent a pound are also incorporated in the quotations for small broilers, old tom turkeys and large Leghorn hens.

WAR HITS ORIENT TOURIST TRADE

TOKIO, May 15 (by mail)—The Orient's tourist business, which promised to smash all records this year, has been practically ruined by America's belligerent attitude and the submarine scare on the Pacific. Never in history had indications pointed to such a bumper crop of American spenders as this spring.

The rikisha boys and curio men had girded their loins and extended their palms. All was ready for the American tourist's spring drive on the Far East. And then President Wilson called the Kaiser's hand and America doffed her coat and stepped into the big world scrap.

The big Toyo Kisen Kaisha liner Tenyo Maru, due at Yokohama April 30, carried less than 100 passengers from San Francisco. She has accommodations for 250 and practically every cabin had been sold. And then came war and the submarine rumors. It's a sad day here for the hotel keeper, and the steamship agent, and the Chinese tailor and the rikisha boy and all the rest—but especially it is sad for the smiling, bowing, industrious subject of the Mikado who will show you everything from an ancient print to a cloisonné vase—and make you buy it.

FEATURE STORY FOR THIS DAY BY UNITED PRESS

BY W. S. FORREST

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
NOTE.—Following is the first of two stories telling how France copes with the war prohibition problem, lately the subject of much discussion in this country.—Editor.

PARIS, May 2 (by mail)—While the United States is struggling with the war prohibition problem, France is today quietly administering a most effective check to demon rum and its dire effect on national efficiency in war time.

In these districts of France where the highest efficiency is demanded of those engaged in vital war work or where vigilance and stamina are the order of the day, strong drink is barred. Alcohol has been driven from the army zones, munition zones; isolated where it is incapable of material interference with the war strength of the nation.

France's method is strict control. In every army zone of Northern France, the commanding general is not only the supreme head of the military force but "governor" of the civilian population. In these zones alcohol has been driven out. In every naval zone of the Atlantic and Mediterranean coasts strong drink is prohibited by the simple virtue of a decree issued by the admiral commanding the zone. Not only are sailors and men in national service denied the use of strong alcoholic beverages but all inhabitants of the zone, women as well as men.

Albert Thomas, minister of munitions, has issued similar decrees to regulate the alcoholic consumption of the great munition making areas when these areas are not in military or naval zones. Not only have prohibitory measures been decreed but heavy penalties are imposed when workers, by any chance, set bad examples for fellow workers.

The Chamber of Deputies recently denied the urgent request of ex-Prime Minister Briand to allow the government to take the liquor problem of the country in hand and control it by right of arbitrary decrees. Political complications intervened. But since France is at war this arbitrary control is placed in the hands of the military authorities who are today regulating the problems with a firm hand.

Pending the forthcoming peace when the great problem of general prohibition in France will flame up again in the French legislature the present system of control today is simplicity itself. Here is the way Vice Admiral A. Rouyer, Commandant in Chief of the Perfect Maritime of Toulon, the great Mediterranean naval center, proceeded to rid Toulon of alcohol on March 3, 1917:

"Decree:—Considering that, under the pressure of coming military events, on which depend the safety of the country, it is necessary to carry to its maximum of intensity the production of labor in factories of war, considering that alcohol is a redoubtable enemy, not only against soldiers and workers of the two sexes, but also, in a general fashion, against women and young people who represent the future of the race;

"Prohibition—Article One—* * * The sale and consumption of spirits, alcoholic liquors and appetizers (apertifs) other than those of a base of wine less than 23 per cent, are forbidden in cafes, restaurants, buffets,

AN-URIC!

THE NEWEST DISCOVERY IN CHEMISTRY

This is a recent discovery of Doctor Pierce, who is head of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N. Y. Experiments at Doctor Pierce's Hospital for several years proved that there is no other eliminator of uric acid that can be compared to it. For those easily recognized symptoms of indigestion—as backache, sealing urine and frequent urination, as well as sediment in the urine, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, it is simply wonderful how surely "An-uric" acts. The best of results are always obtained in cases of acute rheumatism in the joints, in gravel and gout, and invariably the pains and stiffness which so frequently and persistently accompany the disease rapidly disappear.

Go to your nearest drug store and simply ask for a 50-cent package of "An-uric," manufactured by Dr. Pierce, or even write Doctor Pierce for free sample. If you suspect kidney or bladder trouble, send him a sample of your water and describe symptoms. Doctor Pierce's chemist will examine it, then Dr. Pierce will report to you, without fee or charge. "An-uric" is thirty-seven times more active than lithia in eliminating uric acid, and is a harmless but reliable chemical compound that may be safely given to children.

San Francisco, Cal.—During the period of middle life I suffered excessively and was in danger of losing my mind. I read of Dr. Pierce's remedies, and decided to try "Favorite Prescription." I had only taken a few bottles when I commenced to improve. My health was perfect. I also took the "Pleasant Pellets," I sent for "Common Sense Medical Adviser," and we had very little call for a doctor, as we always follow the advice of Dr. Pierce.—Mrs. Louise TRUDELL, 942 Treat Ave.

bars and saloons to military men and sailors of all grades; men belonging to mobilized classes or those engaged in work or service of national defense; in private factories as well as those of the navy or military; to women or young people of less than 21 years of age.

Article Two—All infractions of this decree will be dealt with vigorously under the law.

Article Three—The civil authorities of Toulon are charged with the execution of the present decree.

Prohibition in France, whether administered by military authorities in time of war or by civil authorities in time of peace, will never bring the light French wines or beer under its ban. These are without the pale.

DANCING FROWNED UPON IN ENGLAND

LONDON, May 10 (by mail)—Banned from the British Isles by the popular disapproval, the Goddess Terpsichore was observed sadly winging her way westward, early today.

The British Hun has put his paw down on dancing and the light fantasies will be tripped no more in these parts until the last Hun hesitation has turned into a headlong flight.

Ciro's is out of bounds. The Savoy ballroom chandeliers are gathering cobwebs. The Waldorf tearooms are now sometimes for tea. Private dances are, if possible, more taboo than public affairs.

The recent wrath aroused by Lord and Lady Curzon, who entertained a dozen guests at an informal dance in their home, has put the fear of the malcontents who write letters to the editors in the hearts of any who would dance in the future. London was alive with posters the day after Lord Curzon's affair, screaming to the public far-off-high letters that "Curzon Dances While England Burns," "Twentieth Century Nero," etc.

There is just one institution in London that dares to brave the storm of wrath which those who aren't able to dance shiver over those who can and do. The American Women's Club held a series of three tea dances for the American girls and young men in London in April.

CHAPLIN IS ASKED TO BUY LIBERTY BONDS

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—San Francisco's liberty bond committee is watching the wires for a subscription from Charlie Chaplin.

The committee solicited a subscription from Mary Pickford and she responded $100,000 strong.

Then the committee wired Charlie Chaplin, "For the honor of our sex raise the ante," the committee said.

And as Charlie subscribed $150,000 to the British loan, everyone is confident that the "honor of the sex" will be vindicated.

The Liberty Loan

BY FRANK B. WILSON
Of the Federal Farm Loan Bureau, U. S. Treasury Department
Written for the United Press
From the Liberty Loan Publicity Bureau

ARTICLE NO. I
THE LIBERTY LOAN OF 1917, ITS TERMS AND ITS OBJECTS

EDITOR'S NOTE.—Frank B. Wilson, of the Federal Farm Loan Board, has written another series of articles for the United Press; this time on the workings of the farm loan system, was a big winner. There are five of these Liberty Loan stories. Here is the first.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The big factors in modern warfare are men and money.

Most nations making ready for war first mobilize their man-power. The United States has reversed the usual order by first mobilizing its money-power. The reasons for this reversal are self evident. This country, not being a military power, did not have its men ready for immediate fighting. But, being the richest nation in the world, its wealth was ready for action. So, in its anxiety to make its might immediately felt in the greatest war of all times, it began marshalling its dollars.

The Liberty Loan means just what its title implies. It is our first bid added to the joint activities of liberty-loving nations to crush German autocracy and all that it stands for. It is our immediate substitute for an army; it is our offering to renew the credit of the fighting allies so they may not be hampered in their grim task, until we shall be able to place our army alongside theirs in the trenches.

Greatest Finance Program

The Liberty Loan was authorized by Congress within three weeks of the date of our recognition of a state of war with Germany. It outlined the greatest financial program ever undertaken by any nation on earth. It authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to use the credit of the nation to the extent of seven billions of dollars—five billions to be borrowed by the sale of bonds, and two billions to be raised by certificates of indebtedness. It provided that three billions of dollars of this money should be loaned to our European allies without profit to the United States. It fixed the interest rate at not to exceed 3½ per

STOMACH TORN UP

Indiana Lady Describes Condition, Which She Says Was Due To Constipation and Tells of Relief Obtained From Black-Draught.

Scottsburg, Ind.—Mrs. Annie Johnson, of this place, writes: "I well remember I suffered for a long time with constipation, which would get me down. I took doctors' medicines and any number of purgatives. They would leave me in a worse condition than I was before taking, and my stomach so upset... I know once I suffered... from constipation, I was so ill we had to have the doctor, just so nervous and feverish. The doctor said I would have to quit medicines, my stomach was so bad..."

My husband was reading and found something about Thedford's Black-Draught and brought me a package to try. I used it regularly at first until I began to feel better, then I used just a dose occasionally. I was cured of this constipation and am sure the Black-Draught did it."

If your stomach is out of order, you will suffer from such disagreeable symptoms as headache, biliousness, indigestion, etc., and unless something is done, serious trouble may result.

Thedford's Black-Draught has been found a valuable remedy for these troubles. It is purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way, helping to regulate the liver and to cleanse the bowels of impurities.

Try Black-Draught.

GENERAL HIT NINE TIMES YET LIVES

BY J. W. PEGLER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
LONDON, May 9 (by mail)—A direct hit by a heavy shell or Zeppelin bomb may some day finish Brigadier-General Adrian Carton de Wiart, but smaller missiles seem unequal to the job.

Wounded nine times during his military career, General de Wiart has become a human Verdun. He is pretty badly chipped but the citadel still holds.

The General's latest wound was a shrapnel blow which took a chunk out of one ear. Medical treatment in the field staunched the flow of blood, his head was bandaged and he remained in the field.

The habit of getting wounded seized General de Wiart in the South African war. He was hit twice during that campaign.

It was in Samoland that he received his next wound. This time he lost an eye, but continued to serve as Captain in the army.

Commanding a force at Flanders in the early days of the great war, the General had his left arm shot off. That laid him up for a while but he came back and was wounded next as commander of a Gloucestershire corps at La Boisselle.

Then there followed three more wounding, occurring at various points on the western front.

General de Wiart is a Belgian, brother of the Belgian foreign minister. But he was educated at an English college and has been in the British army for many years. His friends say he is a calm, quiet man, of cheerful disposition, but not apt to laugh over a near-joke. For his conduct in the Samoland campaign he was made member of the Distinguished Service Order. He received the Victoria Cross in the present war.

Here is what the official account said when he was awarded the V. C.:

"It was owing in a great measure to his dauntless courage and inspiring example that serious reverse was averted. After three other battalion commanders had become casualties, he controlled their commands and ensured that the ground won was maintained at all costs. He passed unflinchingly through barrage fire of the most intense nature."

BELGIAN CHILDREN REMEMBER INVASION

LONDON, May 29.—Children of Belgium will never forget those awful days in 1914, when the gray waves swept over the land scouring the country.

In London the family of a well-to-do Belgian refugee was driven from home by fire. Upstairs in her little bed the four-year-old daughter was sleeping when the firemen rushed in.

English firemen wear shiny brass helmets, which appear similar to the German soldier's head-piece in the dark.

The child caught one glimpse of the firemen and screamed: "Les Allemands! Les Allemands. The Germans! They will kill me!"

But one fireman, who had kids of his own, took off his helmet and seized the screaming little girl to carry her through the flames to safety. Safe in her mother's arms, she still sobbed, "Les Allemands! They kill!"

This move for temporary relief completed, the Secretary of the Treasury began to make available to the allies a portion of the credit represented by the certificates of indebtedness. Through the machinery of the Federal Reserve System banks were asked to subscribe two hundred million dollars of this amount. The response was overwhelming and the offer was almost immediately repeated with the same result. Secretary McAdoo made immediate loans to the allies as follows: Great Britain, $325,000,000; France, $100,000,000; Italy, $100,000,000. A program was outlined to extend additional credit at the rate of a hundred million dollars a week.

Nation Responds

This move for temporary relief completed, the Secretary of the Treasury set about the main task of war financing provided in the Bond Act. He announced the issue of two billions of dollars worth of bonds to be distributed June 15 and for which subscriptions would be received up to that date.

The responsive was indicative of the patriotic spirit of the nation and its ability to pay. Throughout the first day after this issue was offered to the public, subscriptions came by telegraph at the rate of a million dollars an hour. It was the plan of Secretary McAdoo to make this loan representative of the spirit of the people and to that end he decreed that this bond should be issued in as small as $50 denominations so that the laborer, the man in the street, and the shop girl might participate in it along with the banker, the broker and the merchant. In this particular it was kept true to its name—a loan in which all of the lovers of liberty could participate.

Offers Overwhelming

Others to buy bonds did not constitute the only evidence of the nation's enthusiasm and loyalty. The offers to perform active service in making the loan a success were overwhelming. The law creating this loan provided that no commissions for the sale of bonds should be paid, but this restriction was superfluous. Bond brokers, bankers, investment houses, merchants, express companies and others volunteered to act as agents without charge. Many large employers of labor even volunteered to buy the bonds outright and let their employees purchase them on the installment plan. To further exemplify the popular character of the loan, Secretary McAdoo created a women's committee to assist in the sale and distribution of the bonds. To add to the attractiveness of the bonds as an investment, they were made tax free (except as to inheritance tax) and the interest is payable semi-annually, June 15 and December 15.

Federal Reserve Banks were designated as fiscal agents and authorized to name committees in each Federal Reserve Bank district to have charge of the distribution of the bonds.

Not long before I was wounded a funny thing happened," he said. "A Fritz came up to me and said, 'Hello, Jock, how's your father?' I asked him who he was anyway, and he said he'd been a school-master in Edinburgh before the war. I marched him back and the shells were pretty frequent. All the time this Boche kept trying to hurry me, saying, 'Get a move on, Jock, or we'll never see Blighty.' I thought that was pretty good for a Fritz. He sure was pleased at being captured."

NEW TEUTON CONSPIRACY IN AMERICA REVEALED

Nation, at War, to Honor Dead Heroes With Unusual Solemnity

VANISHING OF BEACH MAN DEEP MYSTERY

He Secures Cottage At Newport, Sends For His Wife and Then Disappears

ALARM IS FELT FOR W. W. FULLER'S SAFETY

Had Considerable Money In His Possession When He Last Was Seen

NEWPORT BEACH. May 29.—

Friends and relatives of W. W. Fuller, who came to Newport Beach recently to engage in fishing, are greatly alarmed on account of his continued absence from his family. After several days spent at the beach, during which time he purchased a power boat from C. S. Hemstreet, together with other necessary equipment, and rented a cottage preparatory to moving his family here, he made a trip to Los Angeles in his automobile, Tuesday, May 8, supposedly on a business mission.

A short time before leaving here he notified his wife, who had been staying at 315 North Broadway, Los Angeles, to join him, stating that he had rented a cottage and arranged for them to make their home here. As directed, his wife came to Newport Beach, but on arriving failed to find her husband. Inquiry disclosed that he had gone to Los Angeles and after anxiously awaiting his return for almost a week and without having heard further from her husband, Mrs. Fuller reported the matter to the city marshal and asked assistance in locating her husband.

A description of the missing man was furnished to the Los Angeles police department, together with such information as could be obtained relative to his affairs.

So far no word has been received that would throw any light on his movements since leaving here.

At the time Fuller left Newport Beach he was driving a five-passenger Ford automobile, bearing a Montana license number plate. He had a considerable sum of money in his possession, having cashed a check at the First National Bank of Newport Beach the day previous to his departure for Los Angeles.

Fuller is about 50 years of age and of good habits. His wife is wholly unable to account for his strange disappearance, as nothing had occurred to indicate that he had other plans in view.

All of his automobile supplies together with some of his clothing was found at the cottage where his wife is now living.

BRAZIL BREAK WITH GERMANY IS VOTED

President Is Authorized By Congress to Revoke Former Neutrality Stand

RIO DE JANEIRO, May 29.—The Brazilian Congress today authorized the President to announce Brazil's reversion of neutrality as between America and Germany. This course now leaves Brazil without diplomatic relations with Germany and in full sympathy with America but with no desire for war.

LI CHUNG SHI NAMED PREMIER OF CHINA

PEKIN, May 29.—Li Chung Shi was today named premier of China. He must form a new cabinet. A coalition ministry is considered likely.

GRAVES OF WARRIORS WILL BE SHRINES OF SORROWING THRONGS

Organizations Plan Impressive Rites For Departed Soldiers and Sailors

Parties going to the cemetery tomorrow should follow the route indicated by signs as posted by Street Superintendent O'Brien. Grand avenue is closed from Seventeenth to Fairhaven and Santa Clara avenue from Lincoln to Mabury. The best way is to go out Main to Santa Clara, Santa Clara east to the Santa Fe tracks (Lincoln street), north along the tracks to Fairhaven, thence east on Fairhaven to the cemetery.

With the United States at war for a principle for which the veterans of the Civil War offered to lay down their lives, decoration of the graves tomorrow of those brave defenders of individual freedom will be with greater solemnity and reverence than has marked the annual event in more recent years.

The fighters of '61 offered their lives for individual freedom—soldiers of today are and will be fighting for the freedom of nations, until peace halts the slaughter of peoples of the nations now engaged in the dreadful carnage across the waters.

Orange county people will join with millions of others in all parts of the United States in memorials to the noble men of the sixties who responded to the call of Lincoln.

Santa Ana and Orange will join hands in paying tribute to the heroes whose bodies have been consigned to the "Silent City" of these two cities.

FULLERTON, Anaheim Join

Fullerton and Anaheim will join in services at the cemetery in the morning at 9:45. There will be no afternoon memorial exercises.

Allies' Day will be the feature at Seal Beach.

Decoration of the graves of members of the Sedgwick Post of Santa Ana who have responded to the last call will take place at 9 o'clock. The usual order of this exercise at the cemetery has been reversed. The graves will be decorated before instead of after the services at the monument to the unknown dead.

Parties with flowers are asked to bring them to the G. A. R. hall by 8 o'clock tomorrow morning.

A firing squad will be secured by depending on the weather.

ORANGE TO HONOR NATION'S HERO DEAD

Members of the G. A. R. organizations and school children of Orange will gather at the Post headquarters at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning to go to the cemetery to attend the exercises at the monument. Graves of deceased members of the Post will be decorated at 8 o'clock.

Memorial services in the afternoon will be held at Campbell's Opera House, members of the different bodies will meet at headquarters at 1:30 and march to the hall.

Following is the program:

Singing, "America," by the audience.

Invocation, by Rev. J. E. Hall,

ANAHEIM, FULLERTON TO JOIN IN RITES

Fullerton will join with Anaheim in honoring the nation's departed heroes tomorrow, beginning at 9:45 o'clock in the morning, at the Anaheim mausoleum. The assembly call will open the program, followed by the singing of "America" by the Yorba Linda quartette. The chaplain of the Anaheim G. A. R. Post will deliver the invocation of the soldiers' graves by Rev. W. H. Galbraith.

CHILDREN TO STREW FLOWERS ON OCEAN

One hundred or more little children from the two grammar schools of Huntington Beach will march to the end of the Huntington Beach pier at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, bearing flowers. Silently they will strew the fragrant blossoms on the ocean, in tribute to the brave sailors who gave their lives in defense of their country. A brief address probably will be delivered, though the speaker has not been announced. At noon the veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic and the members of the Woman's Relief Corps will hold a basket picnic at the camp grounds on Twelfth street.

The Huntington Beach Company has arranged for a series of eight swimming events in the afternoon to be held in the plunge. Prizes will be given for each event.

SEAL BEACH PLANS TO HOLD ALLIES' DAY

Every Entente nation will have a representative at Seal Beach tomorrow, when the Allies' Day celebration takes place, with speeches, music and a grand unfurling of international flags.

The British consulate at Los Angeles will be personally represented by C. White Mortimer. The French consul will send a representative. Italy will be personally represented by Consul G. Piuma. H. C. Noguchi will represent the Japanese consul. One thousand representatives of the Japanese Society of Long Beach are expected to be present. Chang Kin Sing, Chinese consul, will be present, as will also the Chinese Chamber of Commerce. Invitations have been extended to several other Chinese societies. Belgium, Argentine, Colombia, Salvador and Cuba will be represented.

Frank Burt, president of the Seal Beach Chamber of Commerce, will preside during the celebration. Colonel Tom Fitch will be the speaker of the day.

TROOPS RUSHED TO E. ST. LOUIS AS NEW RACE RIOTS NEAR

Score of Negroes Injured As Huge Mob wrecks Places Owned By Blacks

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 29.—Four companies of militia were today rushed to East St. Louis to quell fresh race riots that it is feared will occur there.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 29.—Attorney General Brundage today received a telegram from the state's attorney of St. Clair county informing him he is despatching a message to Governor Lowden asking the state executive to rush troops to East St. Louis to be used to quell the race riots there and to protect the citizens and property of the city until quiet is restored.

The message to the attorney general stated that the negroes are mobilizing and that his request to the governor will urge speedy despatching of the troops.

In the afternoon at 1 o'clock, Sedgwick Post, W. R. C. Ladies of the G. A. R. and Daughters of Veterans will meet at G. A. R. hall and march to the First Baptist church, where Memorial services will be held, with Walter Eden delivering the address.

The exercises at the monument will take place at 10 o'clock. The Posts of Orange and Santa Ana and auxiliary organizations will join in these services, with Santa Ana furnishing the program.

In the afternoon at 1 o'clock, Sedgwick Post, W. R. C. Ladies of the G. A. R. and Daughters of Veterans will meet at G. A. R. hall and march to the First Baptist church, where Memorial services will be held, with Walter Eden delivering the address.

Invocation, Chaplain, Music, Choir.

The Post Commander will use the usual Memorial Service.

Reading of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, by Arnold Towns.

Reading of General Order No. 11, Erle Simon.

Reading List of Dead, Adjutant.

Oration, Walter Eden.

Singing of "America," Audience.

Benediction.

Orange county's various mountain and beach resorts will undoubtedly attract large crowds of people tomorrow, attending the services at the packing houses and munition factories here.

A mob estimated at several thousand swept through the downtown section wrecking saloons, pawn shops, restaurants and other places where blacks are known to congregate, and beating every negro who happened in the path of the throng. Street cars were stopped and negroes dragged off and flogged. Five of the blacks were so severely beaten, cut and shot that little hope is held for their recovery.

The rioting started immediately following a meeting at the city hall, protesting the importation of blacks from the south to work in the packing houses and munition factories here.

IMPORTANT FREIGHT HEARING IS OPENED

NEW YORK, May 29.—A hearing of the Grand Orders No. 4, including General Logan's General Orders No. 11, by Adjutant Teasdale, Reading, Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, by Mrs. A. D. Bishop.

Singing, "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean," by audience.

Reading, "The Spirit of Memorial Day," by Halford Thomas.

Address by Hon. George W. Prince, of Los Angeles, late M. C. for the Twentieth Illinois District.

Singing, "Star Spangled Banner," by the audience.

Closing Prayer and Benediction, by Rev. W. H. Galbraith.

Liberty Bonds Safest Security In the World

The United States offers you an opportunity to invest in the safest security in the world, and will pay you 3½% interest on your money.

The estimated wealth of the United States is about 250 billion dollars. Our national debt was a little more than one billion dollars before the break with Germany. Adding this to the two billion dollars, now offered the Liberty Loan, gives a total national debt of a little over 1 per cent of the total wealth of the country.

The yearly incomes in the United States are estimated at about 40 billion dollars, or over 13 times the total national debt (including the present issue) and about 400 times the annual interest charges on our total debt.

If a man should come to you and want you to lend him $1,000 and you knew he owned property worth $60,000; if you knew that his yearly income was $13,000, and he gave you his note, would you lend him the $1,000?

Will you lend your money to the United States on such a basis?

Italians Drive On Trieste Over Fields Of Austrian Slain

ROME, May 29.—The Italian advance today is continuing over fields strewn with enemy dead.

Vast quantities of war materials, including guns and shells, are falling into the Italians' hands. Austrian prisoners taken in the offensive now total 23,681.

ROME, May 29.—The southern wing of the Austrian line was being slowly turned today under the tremendous leverage of General Cadorna's full force of arms, exerted westward on the Hermida plateau north of Duino, Duino itself, bounded on one side by the Gulf of Trieste, is now surrounded on two other sides by the Italian troops and all but detached from the Austrian hold. The Italian fighting line is within sight of the town's ruins.

Capture of Duino was momentarily expected. With this point in Italian possession, the way will be open along the coast itself for the advance on Trieste—a way which is comparatively flat as opposed to the towering crags and rocky fastnesses to the north. In such an advance the guns from the British monitors in the gulf will be of great assistance.

The Italian advance was concentrated on this salient today and fighting was continuing with great violence.

On the remainder of the front the battle was mostly of Austrian counter-attacks, the enemy striving to relieve the pressure on the south by menace against the Italian hold elsewhere along the line.

ROARING GUNS IN CHAMPAGNE POINT TO NEW FRENCH DRIVE

PARIS, May 29.—Resumption of a violent artillery fire along a great part of the Champagne front forecasting possibly renewal of French offensive operations in that sector, was announced in today's official statement.

The Germans heavily shelled French positions in the Hurtelive region and launched two heavy attacks, but these were beaten off, with the French retaining their hold on all positions.

Around Verdun the war office said a small post north of Vacheraville had been carried. Yesterday seven enemy aeroplanes were brought down, destroyed, and two others were disabled and forced to alight.

ARTILLERY DUELS, RAIDS ON BRITISH FRONT

LONDON, May 29.—Activity on the British front was confined to mutual artillery and scattered raiding, according to Field Marshal Haig's report.

Southwest of Lens and west of Messines, the British commander in chief reported driving on of hostile raiders. In Ploegsteert wood he said British forces carried out successful raids.

In the neighborhood of Bullecourt and on both banks of the Scarpe the enemy's artillery was active at night.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Another startling German plot was revealed before the House Interstate Commerce Committee today.

Secretary of State Lansing disclosed the fact that "Germans or German officials" attempted shortly before this nation's war declaration to involve the United States in differences with England and France through organization of a big steamship company that was deliberately to violate foreign trade with the enemy acts.

The plot is now being investigated by the Department of Justice upon authority of reliable government information, Lansing told the committee.

Secretary Lansing, Secretary of Commerce Redfield and Assistant Attorney General Warren, author of most of the war legislation, were today before the Interstate Commerce Committee in behalf of the Adamson Trading-with-the-Enemy act introduced last week.

Secretary Lansing was questioned by a committee member regarding the real need for such an act.

"There was an attempt," Lansing said, "by Germans or German officials—I do not know which—to force a breach between this country and either England or France."

"A steamship company was organized with an American board of directors, to make trouble—before the American declaration of war with Germany, between the United States and England or France."

Lansing declared that before this country entered into the war, Germany sent an agent here, or delegated one of her spics on American soil—to organize the steamship company.

This agent, he said, loaned Americans the money to buy grain and place it aboard ships in order to raise some issue between this country and one of the allies over the question of seizure of American cargo.

"There are many cases," Lansing continued, "doubtless inspired by Germany, while we were neutral, of organizations effected in this country for the sole purpose of creating friction with Great Britain or France."

KANSAS CITY, May 29.—An injunction to prevent state, county and city officials from enforcing selective service registration June 5, was filed in the circuit court by Judge J. D. Shewalter this afternoon.

The so-called Federation for Democratic Control, a pacifist organization, is back of the suit.

ORANGE IS FIRST COUNTY TO GET FULL Y.M.C.A. FUND

Subscriptions Today Total About $2562 With Tustin To Be Canvassed

R. G. Cole, secretary of the Orange County Y. M. C. A., is in an enviable position—he has more funds than he knows what to do with. This is figuratively speaking, however, for there is always room for money in Y. M. C. A. work.

Orange county's allotment in the national fund of $3,000,000 for Y. M. C. A. army work was originally $2000, it was raised to $2500 voluntarily by the county "war Council," and the latter sum has already been raised, with Tustin yet to be canvassed.

The Tustin canvass will be in charge of A. E. Bennett and C. E. Utz, and will be taken care of this week.

In a rough estimate, Secretary Cole today placed the total subscriptions received in the campaign thus far at $2562. It may exceed this amount a little.

According to a bulletin issued by the War Work Council of the California Y. M. C. A. and covering reports up to last Saturday morning, Orange was the only county that had subscribed its original pro rata. The total for the county at that time was $2100. Saturday and Monday contributions brought the total to the figures quoted. Los Angeles had raised less than one-fourth of the amount, $7000 being subscribed, with the goal set at $30,000. San Jose had oversubscribed its $5000 by $534, while Santa Barbara was $335 over its $4000. Watsonville was $203 to the good on $1000, San Bernardino city was $40 over $1000. San Bernardino county has raised but $400 of $1000. Redlands is even on $1000 and Pomona is $700 behind on its allotment of $1000.

About 25 per cent of the $125,000 to be raised in California was in hand Saturday morning.

The Orange county fund was raised by contributions from sections, as follows: Santa Ana, $1600; Fullerton, $500; Garden Grove, $100; Westminster-Wintersburg district, $112; Orange, $250.

"I never was in a campaign where money came as easily or where there were as many voluntary contributions as in this campaign," said Secretary Cole this morning. "It shows that our people are thoroughly alive to the importance of the contemplated work in army camps. We are not working to oversubscribe the amount, but we can always use all the money we can get and whatever sum we collect in this campaign above the $2500 we started out to secure will be turned into the national fund. Many cities and counties are falling down in their subscriptions and all surpluses possible will perhaps be needed to raise the national fund."

Cole has just completed a campaign at Anaheim to wipe out the $1500 mortgage on the Y. M. C. A. building there and was entirely successful in his efforts. The building is now free of debt and Anaheim has the distinction of maintaining the finest Y. M. C. A. home in the county.

TRUSTEES PLAN ON ELECTING TEACHERS

Practically All Pedagogues In S. A. Schools Will Be At Posts Next Year

Practically all of the 121 teachers in Santa Ana's public schools will be at their posts again next year. At a meeting of the school board last night it was tentatively decided what teachers will be elected for the coming year. As the law is that teachers may not be elected before June 1, the trustees postponed official action until their next meeting, which will be held two weeks from last night.

Resignations of three teachers, Harold Black, Miss Geneva Atkinson and Mrs. Edwin Benedict, nee Kopplin, have been accepted.

Slight salary increases, affecting about seventy-five teachers, were decided upon last night. Those who will get increases are teachers who heretofore have been getting less than the maximum.

Representatives of the Junior class of the high school appeared before the board with the request that the class be allowed to give a dance to the seniors. The board denied the request. It was pointed out that while the board members individually had no objection to the dance being given, it would be unwise for the board officially to sanction the "hop." Another reason for denying the request was that it was brought to the attention of the board that a vote taken yesterday showed approximately a third of the junior class as not in favor of the trustees officially sanctioning the dance.

MUST REGISTER BY 10 FRIDAY IF GOING ON THE HIKE

Chamber of Commerce Party Forming For Trip to Top Of Saddleback

One minute after 10 o'clock Friday morning and it will be too late to join in the joys of the hike to Saddleback with the Chamber of Commerce excursion party which leaves the city hall Saturday morning at 8 o'clock for a two-day outing.

It is absolutely necessary that Secretary Metzgar or members of the committee in charge of the excursion have definite information as to the number there will be in the party. The committee is composed of Ben E. Tarver, T. E. Stephenson and Sheriff C. E. Jackson. Arrangements for provisioning the hikers will have to be made after the list is completed and once the number is decided on it will be difficult to provide for others who might later determine that they would like to be on the hike.

Twelve have already filed their names at the office of the Chamber of Commerce with two or three engaged in the organization of a group of friends to go with them. It was expected that at least thirty will be in the party.

The excursionists will go to the Andrew Joplin place at the foot of the trail by auto. The trail will be taken by easy stages, no attempt being made to get to the top in record time. The majority of the members will be "soft" and the gait will be slow. Each individual will have to carry his bedding and those going are cautioned to make their load as light as possible. Still it is necessary to have plenty of bedding, for it is cold atop the mountain.

The contemplated trip is reviving discussion of the project to build an automobile road to the top of Saddleback.

Four years ago the Chamber conducted a similar excursion for the purpose of making observations as to the feasibility of such a road. It is entirely feasible, but would cost a large sum of money. Many there are who believe that it would be money well spent, whatever the cost. It would afford one of the best scenic drives in the Southland and would be a great advertisement for Orange county.

DENY POWDER BLAST WAS DUE TO PLOTTERS

OAKLAND, May 29.—The explosion which wrecked a nitro-glycerine plant of the Atlas Powder Company at Giant, Cal., and killed two workmen late yesterday was accidental, officials of the company said today. They vigorously denied the possibility that enemy agents were responsible for the blast. Joseph Peters and James Donahue were the only workmen in the plant, and any explanation of the cause of the explosion died with them. The blast snook Berkeley, Oakland and the surrounding country for miles.

U. S. DOCTOR INVENTS POWERFUL EXPLOSIVE

NEW YORK, May 29.—Discovery of "teritol," an explosive so powerful that five grains would be sufficient to crumble the Woolworth building, was announced here by Dr. Daye Dewaltow. The discovery was made public during a meeting of the Medicopharmaceutical league, at which Dr. Dewaltow was a speaker.

Working to compound a chemical solution for gasoline, he said he and his son, Morton, accidentally discovered the new explosive mixture.

BRAZIL STEP NEARER TO WAR WITH KAISER

RIO DE JANEIRO, May 29.—Believed to be the first step toward a flat declaration of war on Germany by Brazil, the Chamber of Deputies, by a vote of 139 to 3, revoked the declaration of neutrality between the United States and Germany. A notice says that in German circles it is asserted that Germany will declare war on Brazil within two or three days. The Diario Ilustrado, at Santiago, Chile, declares that Chile will support Brazil in adopting vigorous measures against Germany.

NABOB GUARDED FROM HIS DIVORCED WIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—Joseph Allen Caples, heir of the late millionaire Richard Caples of El Paso, is under guard today at the Palace Hotel, the result of a warrant secured by his divorced wife, charging non-support, having been served on him. Illness prevents his removal from the hotel.

Two years ago Mrs. Caples secured a divorce in Los Angeles, including an order for support of their minor child. She claims the support has not been forthcoming.

WAR is always a tragedy; we think of that side of it first, usually. But long after its tragic elements have been softened by time, its heroisms are a flaming memory.

This is as it should be; for the tragedy is a matter of events and of time; but heroism is a spiritual and eternal force.

The nation still celebrates Memorial Day, paying a tribute to heroism; there will never come a time, we hope, when such a day, and such homage, will be discontinued.

AMUSEMENTS

Reasons Why You Should See "Womanhood, The Glory of the Nation"

—Some reasons for the remarkable success of Commodore J. Stuart Blackton's soul-stirring drama, "Womanhood, The Glory of a Nation," starring Alice Joyce and Harry Morey with an all-star Vitagraph cast which is shown at the West End Theater on June 5-6, are listed below:

New York is shown bombed from the sky.

Theodore Roosevelt makes a rousing patriotic speech.

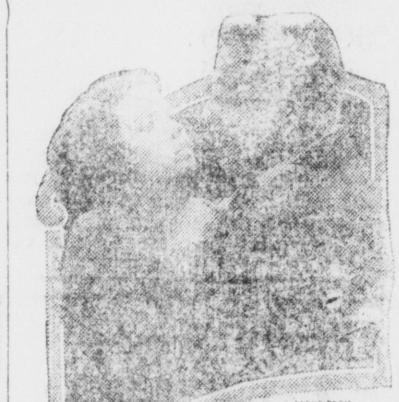

Submarines are shown discharging torpedoes under water.

The Capitol at Washington is the background for a scene containing thousands of people.

Two high blooded European gallants fight a duel with rapiers.

Navy yards and munitions factories are seen in full blast.

Zeppelins are witnessed maneuvering in action.

company consisted of ten people headed by Miss Fanchon Lewis, and all showed their capabilities to advantage.

Miss Lewis as Neela Gale played the role with excellent dramatic force and spirit. As the girl confronted by the "barrier" of Indian blood, she has a part which calls for the intensity of emotion and handles it most successfully.

Jack Conway as Captain Burrell played his role with incertainty and straightforwardness. Maurice Cheek, who also directed the production, gave a splendid performance as Doret, the French woodsman. Ruth Handforth displayed excellent appreciation of the role of Aluna, the Indian woman. James Nolan as Runnum created a character of effective villainy and Charles Caulkins as Den Stark did particularly good work. His death scene was a dramatic moment. Fred Knight played John Gale, J. M. Cox as No Creek Lee, William Clemens as Captain Thomas, and Baby Jack in the child role all did effective work.

The players give the impression of thorough sincerity and interest in their work and there is no flagging of action or strength. There will be a performance tonight and tomorrow night at 7:30; also a special Memorial Day matinee at 2:30 p. m. Much interest is taken in the announcement that the Temple Theater has made no advance in prices for this traveling road show attraction. In addition to the above show the regular photoplay program is projected.

Clune's Theater

Many persons have asked if "Dough" Fairbanks trains in order to keep in good physical condition for his athletic pictures. Never did a boxer train harder for a bout than "Dough" does for a picture. Before tackling his part in "In Again Out Again," his first Artcraft picture now at the Clune Theater, "Dough" spent two weeks at Lake Placid, N. Y., during which time he worked himself into pink of condition in the mountains.

JOYRIDERS RETURN PERKINS' MACHINE

A new invention, the "aerial torpedo," is demonstrated.

A clever secret wireless telephone is employed to send dispatches from a daring girl in the enemy headquarters to the American lines.

The legendary Columbia is brought to life with an invincible sword and shield.

A pacifist meeting turns into a riot that is anything but peaceful.

A human militaristic machine slays his own son to enforce discipline and to gain time for a battle.

A Civil War battlefield strewn with hero dead is transformed into terrain populated with restored armies.

A heroine of the nation is kidnapped in an aeroplane by foreign agents.

A whole navy is destroyed in a sea of burning oil.

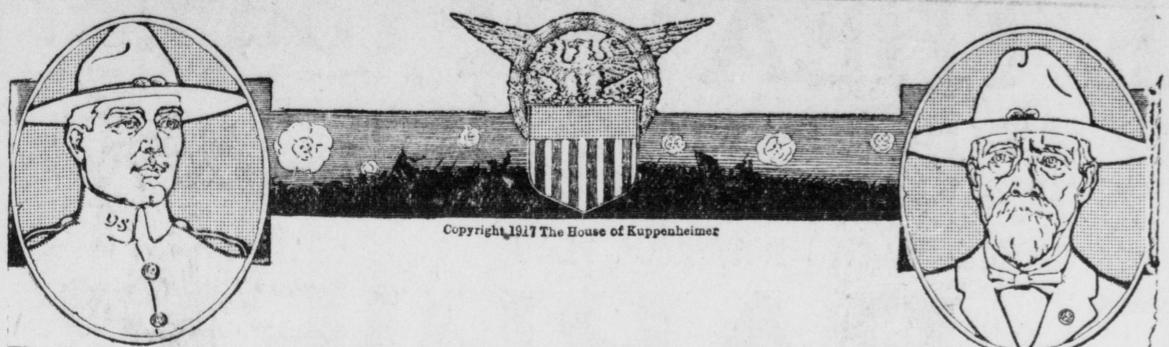

The stoke room of a battleship is seen engulfed as the vessel founders.

Gas attacks as conducted on the battlefield are reproduced with fidelity to actual conditions.

JETTY BIDS TO BE RECEIVED ON MONDAY

Beach Board President Names Committees; Boardwalk Contract Awarded

NEWPORT BEACH, May 28.—At a meeting of the Board of Trustees held here last night President H. A. Robinson announced the appointment of the following committees:

Finance—G. P. Wilson and J. J. Schnitzer.

Street—John C. McCain and G. P. Wilson.

Police—J. J. Schnitzer and J. P. Greeley.

Fire and Water—J. P. Greeley and John C. McCain.

Gas—John McCain and J. J. Schnitzer.

On account of the resignation of President S. R. Juniper and Trustee Glenn Helms, and the appointment of J. J. Schnitzer and J. P. Greeley to fill vacancies on the board, the appointment of committees by the newly elected President of the board was necessary.

Bids for the construction of a boardwalk on piling along the ocean front westerly from Twenty-third street to Thirty-sixth street were received and acted on by the board. Five bids were in the hands of Deputy City Clerk J. R. Lemon at 8 o'clock p. m. May 28, 1917, as set forth in the advertisement for bids for this improvement.

The bids were as follows: Harvey Garber, per linear foot complete, $5.62 1-3; Johnson-Shea Company, $4.49; Edgar T. Wheeler Company, $4.27; Fred Hoffman, $3.25; Glenn Helms, $3.34.

The contract was awarded to Fred Hoffman of Long Beach, he having submitted the lowest bid.

The ordinance regulating bathing suits was laid over for one week. It was thought that if the ordinance was adopted as read it would result in placing a ban on some of the suits now in use by the local bath houses.

The appointment of William Ulrich as deputy marshal by J. A. Porter, marshal, was referred to the Police committee, as was also a petition filed by Oscar Collins asking to be appointed policeman during the summer months.

A number of protests filed with the deputy city clerk protesting against the opening of Bay avenue from Twenty-third street to Thirtieth street were heard. The date for a hearing on these protests was fixed at the hour of 7:30 p. m., Monday, June 11, at the hall.

The next meeting of the board will be held Monday, June 4, at which time bids will be received for the building of the jetty at the entrance to Newport Bay.

'UNRECONSTRUCTED REBEL' IS PROBLEM

LOS ANGELES, May 29.—Even unto the third generation runs the "unreconstructed rebel" sentiments of the Heatherlys, "of Texas, suh!" And for this reason Miss Mary Belle Heatherly, 16, has presented today a problem that baffles the principal and faculty of the San Pedro high school. As a pupil in the junior grade of the high school, Mary Belle refused to stand when the class was singing "The Star Spangled Banner." Finally, when the girl was obdurate to the demands of the teachers, the matter was taken to her mother, Mrs. M. Heatherly. This school of the South was explicit. "My folks never surrendered to that flag and there is no reason why my girl should pay homage to it," she said.

EDISON COMPANY IS MERGED WITH P. L. P.

LOS ANGELES, May 29.—Consolidation of the Southern California Edison Company and the Pacific Light & Power Company was announced today following authority granted by the Railroad Commission. The total capitalization of the enlarged Southern California Edison Company is now $77,000,000 in $38,000,000 of stock and $39,000,000 of bonds, debentures and notes.

ATTORNEY FORGY SLIDES OUT OF OVERTURNED MACHINE

Accident Last Night Imperils Lives of Forgy and Two Children

Without offering a demur or interposing an objection, Attorney Horatio Forgy gracefully rolled out of his automobile and measured his length on the pavement at the corner of Fourth and Bush streets last evening when the car he was driving was struck by a machine driven by Dr. H. J. Stevens. Forgy's children, Fred and Dorothy, were with him, and they followed their father. None was hurt. The Forgy car was damaged, the windshield being broken and the lamps and fenders twisted. Dr. Stevens will pay the repair bill, which will probably amount to $100. Stevens was not unseated and his machine escaped with slight damage.

Forgy was driving south on Bush, and Stevens west on Fourth, and the cars came together on the south side of Fourth.

Forgy attempted to stop his car and jammed the brake so hard that his foot slipped from the pedal to the foot-throttle, with the result that the car bounded forward with increased instead of decreased speed.

The Forgy car turned over easily, resting on its side, and Forgy and his children slid out of the car without sustaining bruises of any kind.

All concerned in the accident gratulate themselves that the accident had no more serious results than it did.

SCARS CAUSED BY BIG TORNADO ARE HEALING

CHICAGO, May 29.—The scars inflicted by the three-day cyclonic disturbance in the Middle West and South were already healing today.

Tent colonies had sprung up to house temporarily the thousands of homeless, while wreckage was being cleared away rapidly in preparation for rebuilding the wrecked villages and cities in eight states.

Revised figures and the death of several of the injured have placed the total casualties at 291 dead and 1347 injured.

State, county and city officials, civilians and Red Cross are co-operating in relief work. The Illinois Legislature today was expected to appropriate $750,000 for sufferers in this state. The Red Cross was expected to donate about $400,000 more. Similar funds were to be raised in other states, according to the losses in life and property.

No accurate estimates of property loss have yet been compiled. The damage in Illinois alone was believed to be around $2,000,000. In all the other states affected it would probably reach another $2,000,000.

USES GAS IN ATTACK TO OUST 'VARMINTS'

ALHAMBRA, May 29.—Walter H. Haas is perplexed today. He doesn't know whether to award his brother-in-law, Glen Jewett, the iron cross or report him to the humane society. And it's all because he saw 78 dead rats in a row, "somewhere in Alhambra."

It came about like this: Rats were overrunning the Haas ranch. Jewett, an army disbursing officer, hit upon a plan to employ European war tactics to exterminate the rodents. He used an automobile, but not to run them down en masse, or singly. Applying a funnel to the exhaust pipe of the engine, he attached this to a hose and placed the hose in the runway of the rats. Result—aspphyxiation.

MOONEY BOMBING CASE TO HAVE EXTRA JUROR

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—Although nine temporary jurors were in the box this morning for the opening of the trial of Mrs. Rena Mooney for the preparedness parade bomb murders, it will be up to the attorneys to secure four more. Judge Seawell, presiding, plans to secure an extra juror to serve in case any of the regulars should become ill or otherwise unable to attend court. Paul Postler, a member of the Bakers' Union, aged 22 years, was passed yesterday, the youngest member of the jury.

GERMAN ARTIST IS HELD AS ENEMY ALIEN

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—Jacob Brewer, German artist who stole a valuable Millet canvas from the Park Museum in 1908 and subsequently was caught in a house on Eighteenth street, is in custody again today after capture last night in the same house. This time he was taken for an escaped "enemy alien" from Angel Island. Brewer was brought to the internment camp from "somewhere in the Pacific" a short time ago but escaped yesterday afternoon.

ESPEE TO BUILD 5900 NEW FREIGHT CARS

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—Work will begin soon on 5900 freight cars for the Southern Pacific, to help meet the car shortage. General Manager W. R. Scott announced today. Contracts for delivery of 500 box cars on October 1 have been let to Twohys Bros. and the Seattle Car and Foundry Co. 1000 box cars will be built in the Southern Pacific shops at Los Angeles and Sacramento, and the remaining building program will be arranged contingent on material and labor supply. Included will be 2700 refrigerator cars for the Pacific Fruit Express.

Nuevo Land Co.
Gentlemen:
I am proud of my 30 acres at Nuevo. My father has 30 acres and my sister has 50 acres. My land is planted to apricots, alfalfa and grain. I came here from Santa Ana because I like farming conditions better here than in Orange County.

I like this country well enough that I am going to try and induce all my relatives to come and locate here. I have already induced one of my brothers from the east to buy 80 acres. The soil, water and climatic conditions are all that a farmer could desire. We are rapidly getting a large colony of Orange County ranchers here, and that looks like good evidence of what this country has to offer.

Yours truly,
Norman Walker.

NUEVO RANCH

REGULAR $500 LAND (with WATER) at $250 PER ACRE

The Nuevo Ranch district is one of California's most rapidly developing agricultural and fruit sections. Thousands of acres are being cultivated and improved by many of the most prosperous farmers in the state. Keen minded men see another "Orange County in the making" there. The soil is deep and rich, the water supply is cheap and plentiful, the climate is healthful and the prices at Nuevo Ranch are way below anything of equal value in Southern California.

Olives, apricots, walnuts and peaches are the principal tree crops. Interculture is highly profitable—black-eyed beans, onions, potatoes, berries, rhubarb, tomatoes, peppers, and peanuts, grow successfully in this soil.

Go and talk direct to Nuevo ranchers (most of them are former Orange county residents)—and get the facts from them.

J. H. McClure of this section, says, "I know that there are many farmers in Orange county who would be mighty glad to trade their farms for land here in this valley."

Write or call for illustrated booklet containing signed statements of twenty ranchers. This booklet will interest any man who is in a position to take advantage of the best land and water offering in Southern California.

IN MEMORY

Tomorrow, more than upon any other day of the year, our thoughts turn backward to the days when our dear ones, who have passed on, were alive. Though the day is observed especially in memory of the brave men who carried arms for the Stars and Stripes in the dark days of internal warfare, it is a day that takes many of us to the cemeteries, where we lay the choicest of blossoms upon the graves of our departed kin and friends.

We stand by the grave, and the tears flow down our cheeks. We call to mind anew the kindly traits and virtues of the one who has gone to the last rest, and anew the anguish of the parting chasteneth the soul.

With depth of feeling we gather with the old soldiers at the monument to the Unknown Dead, and in the shadow of the flag we stand with bowed heads while prayers are said by comrades whose lives were risked with those whose lives were snuffed out by shot and shell and the ravages of disease and the sufferings of exposure.

Entered today in the greatest war of history, with 100,000 American soldiers mobilizing for a journey into the trenches of France and other armies to be raised to follow, we feel the tremendous significance of this monument to the Unknown Dead. Hundreds of those who sail for France will lie in unmarked graves, martyrs to that patriotism and that burning love of the cause of freedom which have ever marked the American in war.

It is our custom to fire a salute for the Unknown Dead, and to place flowers at the base of the monument. Then in squads, the comrades march from grave to grave, and little girls dressed in white help the men and women of the older generation in spreading flowers above the marked graves of men who fought with the Union Army, '61 to '65.

Never has there been a Memorial Day such as tomorrow will be. The past and the present are linked with the future. Patriotism and sacrifice for the flag have deeper significance. Blessed be the day if it brings us to a closer realization of our duties and our opportunities in this hour when our country needs our patriotism and our sacrifices.

TAX SLACKERS

There are many kinds of slackers. The one who tries to dodge his military duty is only the most obvious type of offender. There are others nearly as contemptible. And among them Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard, gives special distinction to the tax dodgers.

After men, our government needs money. A denial of funds would mean disaster as surely as would a denial of soldiers. Tax-slacking is a sort of financial mutiny. And it's not merely an insidious blow at national success. It's a blow at the slacker's own character.

Tax-dodging doesn't consist only in the secret evasion of one's financial obligation to the government. It is found just as clearly in demands for special legislation favoring large classes of people who should properly share the tax burdens. Says President Eliot: "If the great majority of voters who are of moderate or narrow incomes use their control of taxation to avoid paying any taxes themselves, they surely will lose their self-respect, and therewith those sturdy, independent, honest and just qualities which alone benefit free men. By their own selfish and mean action they become morally pauperized. The action of the American democracy on the income tax already shows signs of this insidious demoralization."

It is proper enough for the small-income man to demand that the multimillionaire pay a heavy sur-tax on his big income. But there is no justice in that unless the former is willing him self to pay in proportion to his ability. The humble citizen, provided he is above the actual poverty line, should not object to paying dollars where the rich man pays thousands.

Memorial Day in War Time

(Youth's Companion.)

HERE is no other day in all the world like our own Memorial Day. No other people has set apart a day of remembrance on which the whole nation goes forth to beauty with the blossoms of spring the graves of the men who gave or risked their lives in battle for their country. That may be because no other modern nation has until now faced, as the United States faced half a century ago, an armed threat against its very existence; it may be because there is among Americans a vein of sentiment that expresses itself with unusual frankness and spontaneity. For there is no misjudgment more grotesque than that which accuses America of materialism. There are materialists among us, as there are in every country; but beneath and beyond all we are incurable idealists. We have never followed any leader who did not feel and nobly express the spiritual aspirations of free democracy. We have never fought willingly except in defense of those aspirations. We fight today only because we know that there is a power in the world that threatens the things that we hold most sacred.

This Memorial Day finds us committed to a war beside which even our own great Civil War seems small; a war that presented to us an issue less simple than the issue we faced in 1861 and a choice less immediately inevitable. But through the smoke of battle we have seen clearly the principles that are in conflict; our young men who take up arms today, and who will offer their lives if need be in the struggle, may go forth serenely confident of the justice of their cause; they may be sure that in the days to come their country will remember the sacrifice of those who gave their lives that the Union might live. In the days to come they will form another Grand Army of the Republic—a united republic now. Their service, and it may be their suffering, will have a new and fuller meaning to Memorial Day. They will take up the loving duty that the veterans of our Civil War have so long performed. They, too, like the survivors of 1861 and the volunteers of 1898, will make visible before our eyes the love of country and the spirit of self-sacrifice that this day was meant to immortalize.

For Memorial Day has always been an occasion not only for memories but for consecration. To the gray-haired men, every year fewer in number, who actually bore the heat and burden of our war of reunion it is perhaps a day of memories. But for the rest of us it cannot be that; if it is to have vital meaning for us, it must have root in our own experience and in our own present needs. The sight of the bent and aged men who in their youth and strength made it possible for this republic to come forth from its travail free and undivided and great, the simple and beautiful commemoration service, the half-masted flags, and the graves heaped with flowers—these things touch with momentary feeling even the most thoughtless. But if that is all, the day has failed of its noblest mission. If it does not rouse us all—the men, women and little children—a fresh understanding of all that our country means to us, if it does not kindle anew our devotion not only to our native land itself but to all the principles of human liberty on which our government is founded, if it does not make us glow with a living desire to be of service each in his own way to the cause of freedom and justice among mankind, then we have lost the message that the patriots who instilled the day meant it to carry.

If we have, some of us, taken this day too lightly, if we have thought of it rather as a welcome holiday than as a solemn day of consecration to the nobler ideals of national life, let us not make that mistake this year of all years. The world is being remade about us; it is not too much to hope that, in Lincoln's mighty phrase, all mankind is under God to have a new birth of freedom. In this great crisis of the race America is to have a part. On this most hallowed of days let us pledge ourselves and all we have to making that part not only honorable but glorious. Let each of us see to it that through him the republic is not hindered in the path of service.

Travel de Luxe

An effort is being made to have the railroads cut out some of the luxuries that the traveler has learned to think he must have. The traveler himself should be the last to complain.

In the modern dining car, for example, there is spread now an elaborate, but scanty, meal. It is served with impressiveness, and the cost is such that a person with normal appetite and normal income could not afford to indulge. Each portion is a joke, but about the charge for it there is an aspect of seriousness.

The ordinary person is not justifiable in paying several dollars for a dinner, and he feels imposed upon when he does pay the several dollars for food that in a cafeteria, and more abundantly supplied at that, would set him back about 30 cents.

Kipling's Note

It is a pleasure to take exception to the commentator who declares that concerning the war Kipling "has not sounded a note that commands more than passing attention."

The criticism is true only in the sense that just at this time there is nothing but the war that commands more than passing attention, and even this attention is quickly diverted to some new phase of the struggle.

Kipling's Sea Warfare is in every way worthy of Kipling's reputation, while a more recent story, The Eye of India, is the expression of the old Kipling genius, undimmed.

What's the Difference?

Hollweg declines to state the German terms of peace even to his own people.

Doubtless this is because he is wise and hesitates to make himself ridiculous. Not being a Prussian like Hindenburg, and not so obsessed of the notion that the kaiser is to rule the world, he knows that Germany is licked and that it is staggering on to final crash.

In the new Germany will be no kaiser, no Hindenburg, and the Hollweg will be mighty lucky if given a chance to go way back and sit down.

Germany will not be asked to accept terms. The terms will be made for the kaiser and his pals much as a judge and jury make terms for a convicted band of outlaws.

Getting Rich

A money lender lent $82.50 at 10 per cent a month, compounded. The borrower was a little slow in coming through, and so the lender brought suit for $173.456.50; showing that there is money in sharking, if only you get it.

The lender was thrown out of court, but it is regrettable that this process was technical.

This particular court is on the eleventh floor and the fellow ought to have been kicked all the way down.

No Press Gag

There is to be no press gag. The defeat of the plan puts a lot of fellows on their honor; which with some of them is fragile support.

Missing

Edward Bayard Hale, an American correspondent who sent over pro-German stuff, seems to have disappeared from print.

Hope he is not fighting in the German army.

But As to Threats

At the beginning of the European war, making an honest effort to be neutral as an editor, I found the task impossible. Germany so obviously was wrong that to affirm otherwise was a sign that a writer was obsequious.

NEW YORK, May 29.—Connie Mack, famed developer of young talent, is beginning to doubt that they grow in the colleges now as they used to. His efforts to rebuild a powerful baseball machine on the lines that the famous team of former days held have met with but little success. He has been forced to beat the bushes to get some life into his ball club.

Memory recalls that Eddie Collins, Jack Barry, Stuffy McInnis, Eddie Plank, Chief Bender, Jack Coombs, and many other famous ball players who have developed under the tutelage of Mack were collegians just a short time before they became Athletes.

Mack tried to do it all over. He combed the college talent looking for promising players and he picked up many youngsters who were given trials. Only a few of them have been able to stand the major league pace. Among the college players still drawing salaries from the Athletics is Lawton Witt. He is a real star and is becoming better daily as he learns the Mack system. Catcher Meyer is another, but aside from these the college players have done little.

Mack went out last year and bought Ping Bodie, Thrasher, Noyes, Bates, and some others. Recently he bought Cy Falkenberg back to the big circuits. He is trying now to rebuild the other managers do. His efforts so far have brought encouraging results, but he still is a long way from the desired point.

Mack will have to keep on combing brush. He will not find the amateur players of promise that used to covet for the colleges and semi-professional nines. Baseball in the colleges has deteriorated, or the class has gone back. The ball players nowadays apparently are growing on the sand lots; the colleges are contributing very little.

FOR OLD-TIME FRIENDS

Mrs. James S. Rice Gathers Company Informally For Mrs. Snow, Mrs. Freese

One of those old-time informal and delightful gatherings at the James S. Rice home in Tustin was held yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. Rice gathered a company of sixteen old friends of Mrs. H. K. Snow of Oxnard and Mrs. Grace Freese of Los Angeles, who are guests at the Sherman Stevens home. The guests were schoolmates together in Tustin.

The rooms were abloom with flowers, roses and columbine, making a harmonious combination.

The ladies occupied their time with merry chat and did Red Cross work, with impromptu musical selections by Mrs. A. J. Padgham, Mr. and Mrs. James Willis Rice and the hostess.

In order to complete the good work done, each guest contributed hermite to the Day Nursery and Mrs. Rice has a couple of round dollars for this good cause.

Before the reunion was ended, Mrs. Rice served a tempting collation.

Pleasant Surprise

Mrs. E. L. Robinson's beautiful Tustin home was the scene of a jolly birthday surprise last night, when a crowd of merry young people appeared mysteriously at her door.

The evening was hilariously spent in games, music and dancing until a late hour.

Mrs. Robinson, who is very popular with the young people, made a fine hostess even upon the short notice and all left expressing a wish that there would be many more birthdays in the years to come.

Those present besides the hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Claude A. Nelson and Delbert of Santa Ana; Mrs. McNeil, Miss Gladys McNeil, Miss Thelma McNeil, Ray Grull, Rudolph Dreyer, of Orange; Misses Lola Luella, Lily, Leitha Robinson and Robert Robinson of Tustin.

Memorial Day Program

The halls of the McKinley school building were this morning converted into an auditorium, when the pupils of this school assembled for fitting memorial exercises.

The program opened with all singing the two first verses of "The Star Spangled Banner," followed by a reading by Winifred Golden, "The Flag Is Passing By." A pleasing little song by first and second grades was well given.

Next came a victrola record, "America" and "Star Spangled Banner," played on chimes. Corinne Blackburn gave a recitation entitled "Memorial Day," and the third, fourth and fifth grades sang clear and sweet Keller's American Hymn. Lola Herrera recited a poem of length in a very pleasing manner, and a song by the fifth grade was followed by "America" by all, closing a very pleasant program, which was rendered in a manner to reflect due credit on the teachers of this school.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Mrs. Edna Hyle Hostess to Company Friends at Dinner For Anniversary

Mrs. Edna Kyle of Spurgeon street entertained at a 1 o'clock dinner in honor of her birthday, Monday. The rooms were beautifully decorated in sweet peas and other flowers. Pink was carried out in the dining room, the table and birthday cake being beautifully decorated in pink peas and sweet alyssum.

After dinner, the afternoon was pleasantly spent in conversation and needlework.

Cards were laid for Mmes. I. L. Ritner, S. H. C. Ritner, H. A. Ritner of Tustin, W. A. Ritner of Orange, Earl Elliot, John Newcomer, A. R. Marshall and Miss K. A. Ritner. All leaving wished the hostess many happy returns of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Warren Entertain For Malcolm Tedford Last Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Warren of 410 East Pine street, entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner last evening in honor of Malcolm Tedford, who will soon leave for France.

The decorations and place cards were patriotic throughout. The centerpiece was red, white and blue flowers, over which waved small flag.

Those who attended the dinner beside the host, hostess and honored young man, were LeRoy Warren, John Henderson, Stewart Smith and George Caskey.

The evening was spent in talking over old times.

Fraternal Aid Union Team Calls Uninvited Upon W. H. Trindle Last Night

The members of the drill team of the Fraternal Aid Union paid a surprise visit to their drillmaster, W. H. Trindle, last night at his home, 725 Mortimer street.

The evening hours sped swiftly away with a guessing game entitled "Independence Necessities," in which J. Wiley Harris won first prize and Mrs. G. R. West was consoled with a toy pistol.

Flinch and whist also formed pleasant diversion and a spelling bee was enjoyed.

The surprising party took with them many good things to eat, including potato salad, sandwiches, cake and coffee.

Those invited were Messrs. and Mmes. W. G. Gould, Dan Stearns, W. H. Trindle, J. E. Armstrong, E. L. Peacock, R. J. Browne, J. Wiley Harris, Albert Schrock, J. W. McNeil; Mmes. E. T. Latimer, G. R. West, Cora Joyce; Misses Mildred Joyce, Mabel Trindle, Gertrude Latimer and Master Ian Trindle.

THE KLEPTOMANIAC

Clever Play Produced Last Night By Lincoln Teachers Most Successful

The faculty members of Lincoln school, who last night presented "The Kleptomaniac" in the summer house on the school grounds covered themselves with glory, and an audience that taxed the capacity of the room missed no opportunities for displaying their enthusiasm. It was strictly an all-star cast that appeared last night, and certainly it will be hard to convince anyone who enjoyed Miss Linda Paul's thrilling impersonation of Mrs. John Burton, that somewhere in her romantic past she has not hidden the record of a few seasons of stardom behind the footlights. Her frenzy of grief over the loss of her cherished engagement ring never failed to awaken a sympathetic response from her whole audience.

Miss Adeline Hill was delightfully pretty and altogether satisfactory as the young widow, Mrs. Valerie Chase. Miss Campbell was the charming little bride, Mrs. Charles Dover, whose awe and reverence for "Charlie" met with scanty respect from her somewhat cynical friends, but which was always a treat to her hearers. Miss Lee, as Mrs. Preston Ashley, the haughty society dame with a deep-rooted reverence for names and titles, looked, in a stunning blue velvet hat and some imposing furs, quite blue-blooded enough to claim cousinship with all the New York Van Bibbers, the Philadelphia Biddleys, and Boston Beans whose names rolled so trippingly off her tongue. Miss Snow was a very delightful society bud, Miss Freda Dixon, with a remarkable flow of language and a fondness for getting into and out of other people's troubles with the aid of the city police. Miss Thacker was the journalist, Miss Evelyn Evans, and her air of calm repression while eagerly nosing about for sensational news was something that stage newspaper women will please copy. She was the first stage-newspaper woman known to fame who didn't listen at keyholes, and ecstatically exclaim, "Ha, ha!" every time anybody said something.

As Katie, Mrs. Burton's maid, Mrs. Aspinwall was a decided success, and her dusting of the furniture was thrillingly realistic!

The local names, telephone numbers, and business houses which had been cleverly interpolated, added to the amused interest, and the whole play was an unqualified success.

The play was preceded by a beautifully rendered vocal duet by Miss Maine Havens and Miss Snow, with Miss Havens at the piano. They responded to an encore, and still more applause brought a solo, "Ma Little Baby Coon," by Miss Show.

At the Play

Mrs. Charles F. Heil and Mrs. N. A. Beals were hostesses to the teachers of Lincoln school last evening after the production of the play, "The Kleptomaniac," which was successfully given at the school building last evening, the teachers taking the parts.

The Heil home was prettily decorated, pink and white scabiosis being used in cut glass bowls on the table. The place cards were actresses, the cards bearing the title of the play, "The Kleptomaniac."

After the delicious two-course collation, the play was talked over and graffonola music enjoyed.

A Correction

The teachers' picnic to be given on Thursday afternoon, June 7, will be held at Orange County Park instead of Birch Park, as previously announced. This picnic lunch is to be given under the auspices of the City Federation of the P.T.A.

The splendid report of the National Congress of Mothers, given by Prof. J. A. Cranston, on which it was privileged to attend on his way East, was omitted from the report for the daily papers of City Federation, which met last Wednesday evening. Prof. Cran-ton's report for study was Massenet's "Herodiade."

Mrs. Ella Campau announced the joint meeting of the musical association and the Ebell Music section—to be held the latter part of June at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gustlin.

The opera for study was Massenet's "Herodiade." Mrs. Margaret Caldwell Gehrett, who was in charge of the musical part of the evening, gave a delightfully informal discussion of Massenet and his works. After the reading of "Herodiade" was read, Mrs. Gehrett sang the principal aria of Salomé, also the "Elegie." Mrs. Gehrett's many friends and admirers agreed that she was in unusually good voice in her work last evening, the exquisite ease of production in every register was noticed, together with intelligence and feeling.

The program was then given over to the two splendid artists from Claremont (Pomona College), Miss Harriet Passmore and George Painter Hopkins. Mr. Hopkins opened with two excellent piano numbers, the "Scottish Dance" of Chopin and the "Whirlwind Waltz" by Moszkowski. In these numbers Mr. Hopkins showed a truly remarkable accuracy and control in technique combined with the greatest ease. The club was very enthusiastic and expects some day to hear of great things from Mr. Hopkins.

Miss Passmore absolutely held her audience from the first tone she sang until the last number was given. Her method of technique is so easy that the listener is never conscious that there is such a thing. Miss Passmore seems to get so far beyond it that each person in the audience feels the intimacy in her work.

It was the consensus of opinion that Miss Passmore is one of the most pleasing artists Santa Ana musicians have ever heard.

Santa Ana Musical Association Enjoys "Herodiade,"

Mrs. Gehrett in Charge

The last regular meeting of the Santa Ana Musical Association was held last evening in Earl Fraser's studio. This meeting was one of the most enjoyable held this year.

After the short business meeting, of which Miss Mary Ely and Mrs. John Clarkson were in charge, Mr. Bishop announced the coming concert by the Choral Art Club, which is to be accompanied by a small symphony orchestra. The work to be given is Gade's "Crusaders."

Mrs. Ella Campau announced the joint meeting of the musical association and the Ebell Music section—to be held the latter part of June at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gustlin.

The opera for study was Massenet's "Herodiade." Mrs. Margaret Caldwell Gehrett, who was in charge of the musical part of the evening, gave a delightfully informal discussion of Massenet and his works. After the reading of "Herodiade" was read, Mrs. Gehrett sang the principal aria of Salomé, also the "Elegie." Mrs. Gehrett's many friends and admirers agreed that she was in unusually good voice in her work last evening, the exquisite ease of production in every register was noticed, together with intelligence and feeling.

The program was then given over to the two splendid artists from Claremont (Pomona College), Miss Harriet Passmore and George Painter Hopkins. Mr. Hopkins opened with two excellent piano numbers, the "Scottish Dance" of Chopin and the "Whirlwind Waltz" by Moszkowski. In these num-

Automobile Spotlight Again Causes Court Action Between Santa Anas

The differences between A. C. Williams and C. F. Kaufmann, former partners in the manufacturing of an automobile spotlight, have again found their way into court. A former action involved an accounting. This time Williams is suing Kaufmann upon the ground that Kaufmann has been using Williams' trade mark, called the Silver Beam, upon a searchlight made and sold by Kaufmann. Williams asserts that he has been damaged $2,000. He asks the court to restrain Kaufmann from making use of the trade mark.

For Citizenship

Roy D. Fordham, aged 21, a bookkeeper of Fullerton, has taken out his first papers of naturalization. He was born in Brantford, Ont., and came to this country in 1912.

The sale of 729 acres of land south of Santa Ana by James McFadden to the Santa Ana Sugar Company in 1912 involved $294,107 was shown today when the contract for the sale of the property was placed on record.

Under the contract the last payment is to be made on January 1, 1918.

The contract price was $275 an acre.

This property was bought by James McFadden, prominent pioneer of this section, about 1870, and was held by him until its sale five years ago.

RECRUITING AFFECTS IMPERIAL FARM LABOR

EL CENTRO, May 29.—Imperial valley chambers of commerce are planning to send a message to Washington today suggesting that recruiting here be stopped until the selective service draft goes into effect. That on an average of two young men a day go into the army or navy and out of the fields, is the statement of these organizations, which point out the injury done to the greatest work undertaken by the United States in the war—food raising. With a labor shortage facing the cantaloupe, corn and cotton growers, the man supply is being depleted by enlistments.

County Clerk William has already received several dozen registrations in advance of registration day, Tuesday, June 5. Eighteen of these registrations are for men who are visiting here and who live elsewhere. These registrations are to be sent to the home precincts, from which certificates will be mailed to those registering here.

An equal number of registration cards have been received from residents of Orange county who are elsewhere. Among them are the cards from Frank Sawyer, who is driving an automobile East for Andrew Getty, and two Santa Anas who are at the military training camp at the Presidio.

The clerk has also received registrations from a number who will not be in the county on June 5 and from those who are sick.

The registration of Malcolm Tedford, who is going to France to drive an ambulance is filed.

The names of those who have registered elsewhere and whose cards have been sent here follow:

Frank Sawyer of Santa Ana, at St. Louis, Mo.; Wilbur L. and John L. Trembley, both of Santa Ana, at El Dorado, Kans.; Alfred H. Hansen of Hansen Station, at San Francisco; George A. Morris of San Juan Capistrano, in Los Angeles; John W. Ferguson of Huntington Beach, at Columbus, O.; Samuel P. Standring of Santa Ana, at Portland, Ore.; Clarence Parker of Santa Ana, at Glendale, Mont.; Wayne Holt of Anaheim, at Alturas; Z. Bertrand West, Jr., C. L. Deaver of Santa Ana, at Presidio; Park Whitman of Santa Ana, at Ventura; Wm. H. Girton, Orange, at Los Angeles; W. A. Gill, Santa Ana, at Los Angeles; E. C. Bangs, Santa Ana, Berkeley; H. E. des Granges, Fullerton, at Los Gatos; Will C. McKern, Fullerton, at Berkeley; Leonard A. Warner, Santa Ana, at Peoria, Ill.

Those registering in advance of June 5 here are: James L. Walker, Santa Ana, leaving for San Francisco; C. L. Hammett, Santa Ana, going to Santa Maria; Esley Seeley, Santa Ana, to Pomona; A. F. Varnell, Santa Ana, to Pomona; Samuel Sorenson, Fullerton, to Kane, Pa.; Owen T. Coffin, Santa Ana, to Valmyermo; Chester G. Stearns, Orange, Dewey, Ariz.; Jesse Baggs, Santa Ana, Edmond, Okla.; Malcolm E. Tedford, Santa Ana, going to France; M. M. Lambert, Daniel L. Covington, Don L. Andrews, Leonard M. Brown, Robert A. Bruce, all of Santa Ana; Lyle W. Wickersheim, Fullerton, Wm. T. Newland, Jr.; Harley A. Quinn, both of Huntington Beach; Raymond P. Anderson, Otto P. Rust, Earl O. Imes, Benjamin H. Sidnam, all of Anaheim.

Tuesday, June 5, will be a legal holiday. The banks and public offices will close.

ARE PROPRIETARY MEDICINES FRAUDULENT?

Undoubtedly, there may be some that are, but on the other hand, there are many proprietary remedies that are as standard as any prescription that any present day physician can write, and in thousands of homes you will find these old, reliable remedies in every day use with satisfactory results. Such a medicine is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which, for nearly 40 years, has been alleviating the suffering of woman-kind, and overcoming some of the most serious ailments of her sex. If you are suffering from any of the ailments of women, just give this medicine a trial and prove its worth for yourself.—Adv.

RUSS WAR POWER IS CRIPPLED BY CRISIS

PETROGRAD, May 29.—No way has yet been found to regulate the difficulties between capital and labor and thus settle the industrial crisis, which, because of the enormous demands of the workmen, is such that, according to Minister of Finance M. Shingarov, only a miracle can save the country from economic ruin. Socialists have said that peace is the only way out of the difficulty. Industrial enterprises working for national defense will be compelled to close in a few months here and in other parts of Russia unless a way is found out of the difficulty. Wages in most factories have been increased from 100 to 150 per cent.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Two men of eleven who have been arrested, according to official announcement here, in the anti-registration plots, were the organizers of armed forces intending to defy the authorities in the Virginia mountain districts. The other men were members of an organization formed ostensibly for co-operative buying and have been indicted. "The arrests should be accepted by the country in general as a warning against interfering with the enforcement of the army law," said Attorney General Gregory. At least six persons have been arrested in Chicago in connection with a nation-wide plot to hinder military registration. Federal operators announced that arrests had been made in twelve other cities of the United States, including New York. Hulet M. Wells, a city employee, was arrested in Seattle on a charge of urging resistance to the draft.

TRouble ENTIRELY DISPEALED

Fathers and mothers worry over a child with a chronic cough. Knudt Lee, Wannaska, Minn., writes: "For several years my daughter had a bad chronic cough. Every time she caught a little cold, it aggravated the trouble. We tried many medicines, but not until we tried Foley's Honey and Tar did anything produce any great relief. In a few days the trouble entirely disappeared and has never returned." Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough.

URUGUAY IN THROES OF GIGANTIC STRIKE

Buenos Aires, May 29.—A general strike throughout Uruguay was proclaimed today by the Federation of Labor. Dispatches from Montevideo gave hint of the government's fear of trouble in announcing that soldiers of the regular army had replaced all police. No newspapers were published throughout the republic today.

ONCE books either overcrowded limited shelf space or empty shelves yawned and waited for books. When one bookcase overflowed, a new one was purchased, and its gaping shelves were gradually filled. That was before the Globe-Wernicke period in bookcases. Now, books and their shelves come together. The bookcase grows apace with the library. This is the modern way of building a library. This is the Globe-Wernicke idea. Globe-Wernicke Sectional Bookcases are built to endure, and do not cost any more than the ordinary kind.
